

THIS WEEKEND AT GRACE

JUNE 16, 2017

Service Time Change

Sunday, June 18

Don't forget that our summer worship hours go into effect on June 18. Our Sunday morning services will be at 8:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Thank you!

Also, our summer office hours are also in effect. Keep in mind that our office closes on Fridays at noon. Thanks and have a great summer!

Daryce Hoff Nolan Ordination

Sunday, June 18, 10:30 a.m.

Our companion parish St. Helena/Santa Elena invites Grace parishioners to a picnic honoring their new Deacon, Daryce Hoff Nolan, at noon on Sunday, June 18.

The picnic will be preceded by a bilingual mass at 10:30 a.m.

Daryce and three other candidates will be ordained by Bishop Jeffrey Lee at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 17, at St. James Cathedral. The preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Bob Wyatt, Grace's associate priest. All are invited.

Daryce is a music teacher at St. John Fisher School in Chicago's Beverly neighborhood and a former hospice chaplain. She holds a bachelor's degree from Trinity Christian College and a master's from Roosevelt University.

St. James Cathedral is at 65 E. Huron, Chicago. St. Helena/Santa Elena is at 7600 Wolf Rd., Burr Ridge.

The Anglican Shop Closing

75% Now Off

Everything in The Anglican Shop is now 75% (with some deeper discounts found in the store and the Guild Room). Items are going fast, so be sure to tell your friends!

If you need an extra chance to shop, be sure to swing by tomorrow (Saturday) from 10:00 to 2:00!

And They're Off!

Pray for YMO

The truck is loaded, suitcases are packed, and our Missioners leave on Saturday morning for the sea islands in South Carolina. While they are away, we support them from home by covering them in prayer for the duration of their time away.

We almost have total coverage of their trip, but are missing some spots. Click here to go to the SignUp Genius to sign up for a time slot (or two!) to hold our youth and sponsors close to your heart in prayer and meditation. Thank you to those Prayer Warriors who have already signed up!

Our Prayer List

With the Prayer Team

Our Healing Ministry Prayer Team receives our prayer list every Sunday morning in the Chapel and covers our list in prayer on Sunday morning and throughout the week. If you have someone you would like to add to the prayer list or if you would like to experience the power of prayer and join the team, please talk to Fr. Bob.

GEMs Spiritual Formation Program

Saturday, July 15, 7:30 a.m.

What: GEMs Spiritual Formation 2017: Our Spiritual Journey Through The Beatitudes

Where: Parish Hall

When: July 15 at 7:30 a.m. (breakfast), 8:00 a.m. (program)

How: We will continue our spiritual journey of discovering Christ within us and diving into the great adventure of our formation as men with an examination of Christ's teachings as expressed in the Beatitudes. We will examine each of the Beatitudes from the Sermon on the Mount as set forth in Matthew, this month:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they will be filled.
(Matthew 5:6)

Each month, a GEM will take the opportunity/responsibility to prepare set of discussion points about that month's Beatitude, with a great deal of latitude to frame their structure within the context of our general goal of increasing our spiritual awareness as men. We will end the year with a retreat in November to wrap up what we hope will be a powerful and fulfilling journey through some of Jesus' most powerful and revolutionary teachings.

Next Month (August 12): "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God." (Matthew 5:8)

If you are interested in leading a talk, please get in touch with Mike Ascher.

A light breakfast will be served, and a $5 contribution to the cost is appreciated. See you there!!

Spiritual Care Visitor Training

If you are you the one in a circle of friends that is always there for others, or if your family relies on you for caregiving, and you wish you had more pastoral care skills, the Spiritual Care Visitor Training may be just right for you.

This training equips spiritual care visitors with skills for effectively and competently providing pastoral care to sick, lonely, stressed and grieving people.

Hosted by Redeemer Lutheran in Hinsdale, the fall session runs Saturdays from 9:00 to 11:30 from September 9 to November 11, 2017. Students are recommended to the program by a clergy or professional chaplain, and in conjunction with that supervisor, determine a field education site for volunteering 2 hours each week during the course.

The tuition is $325.00 and the deadline for application is August 18. Call Tommy at 312-563-4825 or find more information at bishopandersonhouse.org/are-you-called-to-care/.

Bishop Anderson House is an agency of Episcopal Charities and Community Services of Chicago.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS AND MUSIC

This Weekend's Old Testament Reading

Exodus 19:2-8a

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites."

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: "Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do."

This Weekend's Psalm

Psalm 100 (Jubilate Deo)

1 Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; *
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
2 Know this: The Lord himself is God; *
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
4 For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

This Weekend's Epistle

Romans 5:1-8

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This Weekend's Gospel

Matthew 9:35-10:8(9-23)

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. [Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

"See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes."]
